

About Dr. Salzer

Dr. Jennifer Salzer is an associate faculty member at the New York University College of Dentistry and also holds the position of attending faculty member at Coler-Goldwater Specialty Hospital. She has a private practice on Park Avenue in Manhattan.

Dr. Salzer graduated from Duke University in 1993 and received her Doctor of Dental Surgery degree from New York University in 1997. She went on to obtain her certificate in Orthodontics from New York University in 1999. During this time, she was also a Ford runway model.

Dr. Salzer has given numerous lectures on various aspects of dentistry and has also received numerous honors and awards for her work, including the L.I. Academy of Odontology Award and the Dr. Alexander and Sylvia Goldenberg Award. She developed the "Youthful Smile Profile Test" to help educate women on the lifestyle, life stage, health and oral care choices that impact the aging of the mouth.

In addition to all of her work in the dentistry field, Dr. Salzer is the mother of four children—Mason, age 7; Jesse, age 5; Beau, age 3 and her newest bundle of joy Vivi, who is just 2 months old.
